

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Ovando to Open Holiday Pop-Up Boutique in The Mall at Short Hills

New York, NY (August 3, 2015) -Ovando-the Manhattan based, design and production company celebrated for its modern style-today announced the location of its pop-up luxury boutique. The newest location is slated to open at 1200 Morris Turnpike, at The Mall At Short Hills in Short Hills, New Jersey on August 15, 2015.

The brainchild of entrepreneur and fashion darling, Sandra de Ovando, the full-service design and event production company, Ovando, is a favorite among Manhattan's elite. "We specialize in encapsulating the beauty of concept and transforming it into an experiential environment through an array of artistic mediums and design elements," says de Ovando. Bringing its exclusive and trendsetting style to New Jersey, Ovando will continue to embrace its purpose of creating beautiful moments and spaces, thrilling people's senses and making them happy through exceptional designs.

In addition to Ovando's iconic signature floral arrangements, holiday and event décor, and luxury candle collections-Recuerdos de Mexico and Souvenirs de Paris-the boutique will offer a variety of services including: floral design classes, in-home holiday decorating, and consultations for the Art of Holiday Gifting. The luxury pop-up boutique will also premier Marche aux Fleurs and Chantilly, the highly anticipated additions to the Souvenirs de Paris collection, which launch later this year.

The 2,000 square foot space, designed by Ovando's master designers, will showcase intricate event installations, highlighting extraordinary décor possibilities for social events and the home. The backdrop of the space stays true to Ovando's design philosophy-simple, not simplistic-with black walls and fixtures and custom-made fresh floral displays.
